

Pasticca

design Piero Lissoni

Modular elements in different shapes and sizes with frame in poplar plywood and padding in differentiated density polyurethane foam, covered with a quilted mat in prewashed and sterilized goose down, stitched into separated compartments. Black adjustable PVC feet. Fabric or leather upholstery, both fully removable by Velcro fastenings. The various elements are joined together by means of hooks.

Cushions

